LFTD Partners acquired Lifted Made on February 24, 2020; financial statements consolidated that date forward*

LFTD Partners – Strong Balance Sheet

- Lifted Made's EBITDA margin, typically over 20%, means that our company is generating a substantial amount of free cash flow each month, which has generated a strong balance sheet

As of March 31, 2022 (reviewed):

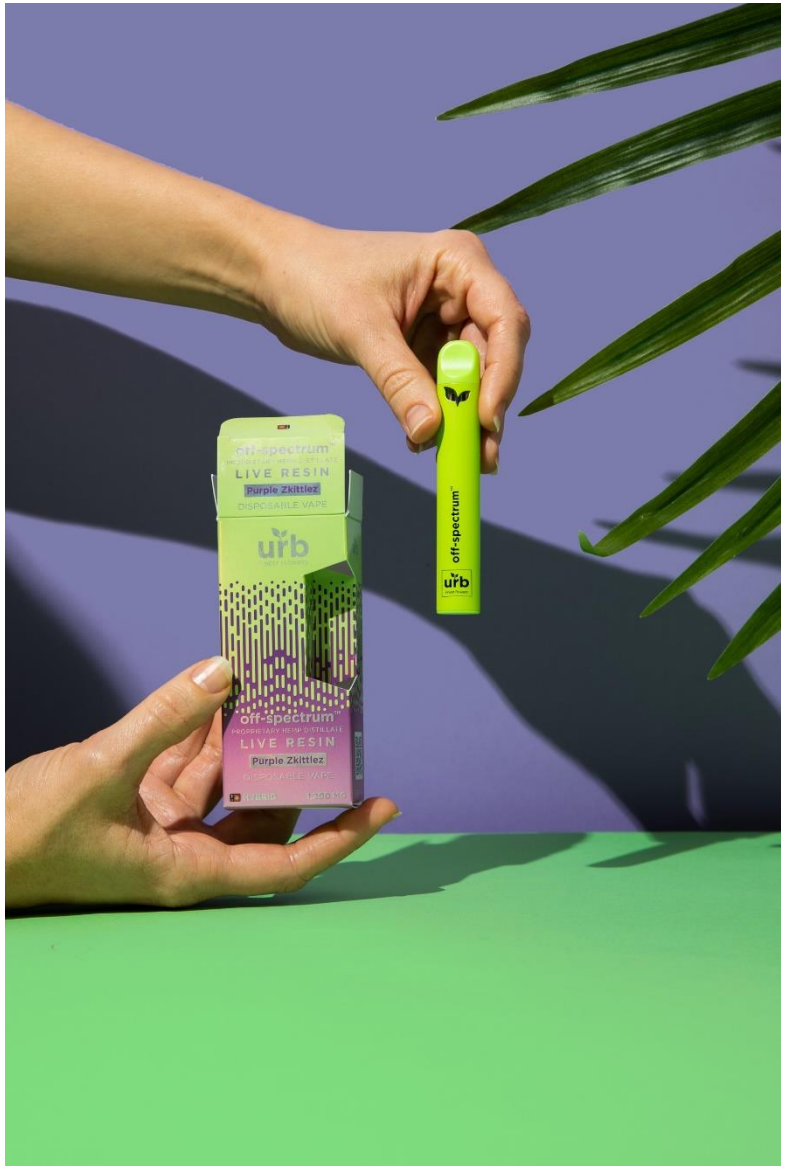
- Cash on hand of over $4.5 million
- Inventory of more than $5.9 million
- Prepaid inventory of more than $3 million

LFTD Partners – Small, Manageable Debt

- During the past six months, LFTD Partners has paid off over $5.2 million of liabilities and taxes, leaving us with just $1.8 million in debt, in the form of a 2.5% note payable in semi-annual installments over the next three years

- Our only other significant financial obligation is that Lifted Made has agreed to purchase its headquarters building in Kenosha for $1.375 million no later than December 2022

- While we expect that timely repayment of our remaining debt of $1.8 million and the $1.375 million purchase of Lifted Made's headquarters building in Kenosha can be accomplished using Lifted Made's free cash flow from operations, we are currently exploring a potential borrowing of $5 million or more that would accomplish those objectives immediately, while also adding cash to Lifted Made's working capital



LFTD Partners – Small Number of Outstanding Shares

- LFTD Partners currently has approximately 14.1 million shares of common stock outstanding (approximately)

- On a fully diluted basis: if all of LFTD Partners' outstanding options and warrants are exercised (which is expected to bring into LFTD Partners over $16.2 million, disregarding certain cashless exercise provisions), and if all of LFTD Partners' outstanding preferred stock is converted into common stock, then our outstanding share count will rise to approximately 20.1 million common shares

LFTD Partners – Stock Valuation Metrics

- Currently trading at less than 9 times 2021 fully diluted EPS
- Current market cap is less than 1 X estimated 2022 sales of $75M
- The market has not yet recognized that Lifted Made has launched successful psychedelic products
- LFTD Partners is in discussions with its investment bankers Roth Capital about where, when and how to seek an exchange listing
